ISSUE FEE TRANSMITTAL AND PAYMENT OF FEES

Mail Stop ISSUE FEE
Commissioner for Patents
P.O. Box 1450
Alexandria, VA 22313-1450

Sir:

Applicants' Attorney had received a Notice of Allowance, dated December 28, 2004, in the referenced application, and the Issue Fee, Publication Fee and fee for fifteen advance copies were submitted to the USPTO, together with the Issue Fee Transmittal and newly-executed Small Entity Statement, on March 10, 2005, under a Certificate of Mailing. Subsequently, the USPTO withdrew the application from issue and returned it to the Examiner for further prosecution. A Request for Refund Under 37 CFR 1.26(b) was mailed to the USPTO on March 23, 2005.

The USPTO has now issued a new Notice of Allowance, dated February 7, 2006. The Notice of Allowance indicates that there are no fees due for the Issue Fee or the Publication Fee.

Since the required fees, in the amount of $1,045.00, which includes the small entity Issue Fee, the Publication Fee and fee for 15 advance copies, have already been submitted and a check of our Deposit Account indicates that the USPTO has not yet processed our Request for a refund, Applicants' Attorney respectfully requests that the USPTO disregard our Request for a Refund and apply the previously paid fees at this time.

Form PTOL-85 is enclosed indicating that all fees have been paid. However, the Patent Office is authorized to charge any deficiencies in these fees, or credit any overpayment, to Attorney Deposit Account 08-0380.

Respectfully submitted,

HAMILTON, BROOK, SMITH & REYNOLDS, P.C.
